DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As per claim 12, it is unclear whether the computer program or the electronic coins comprises the electronic data.... How can the electronic coin comprise the electronic data file embodied on a computer readable medium and comprising code that, when executed, causes a computer to perform any function?.

Further, it is unclear what serial number is being identified. Is the serial number being associated with the electronic coin?. Applicant is suggested to rewrite this step as "identifying a unique serial number associated with said electronic coin."

Furthermore, the claim does not comply with the requirements of the 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. Ex parte Simpson, 218 USPQ 1020 (Bd. App. 1982). The claim scope is uncertain since the trademark or trade name cannot be used properly to identify any particular material or product. See MPEP 2173(05u). The use of the trademark also renders the claim vague and indefinite because it does not clearly recite what "Digital hallmark" represents. The examiner interprets the "Digital Hallmark" as a digital signature that is on the coin.
